Behaviour:

I really appreciate how you not only take responsibility for your own tasks but also make sure that everyone else is on track and meeting deadlines. Your dedication to keeping the team organized is truly valuable

Emotion:

I feel grateful and impressed by how you stay on top of your own work and also check in to ensure everyone else is meeting their responsibilities

Consequence:

This helps the team stay on schedule and ensures that we don't miss important deadlines, which improves our overall performance and keeps the project running smoothly.

Desirable Method:

Continuing to focus on your work while supporting others when necessary, without taking over their responsibilities, will help maintain a balanced and effective team dynamic.
